Billy Meier

Veritas Magazine: Hello Michael, and welcome to Veritas Magazine. For those of you who do not know Michael Horn, he's been researching the Billy Meier UFO case in Switzerland since 1979. He has his own radio show to which he shares the view of Billy Meier on extra-terrestrials, and starred and wrote a feature-length documentary about Billy's story called "The Silent Revolution of Truth." Thanks so much for taking the time to meet with us today.

“Anybody that is alive now more than likely has had quite a number of previous incarnations.”

Michael Horn: Thank you, I'm glad to be able to do this.

VM: So Michael, for those of us who are not familiar with Billy Meier, can you briefly explain who Billy Meier is?

MH: Sure. Billy Meier is, as of our recording tonight, a 73-year-old man living in Switzerland. He has one arm (he lost his arm in 1965), and he claims that ever since he was a 5-year-old boy, he's been having voluntary, wide-awake, face-to-face meetings with extra-terrestrial human beings (called Plejaran's), and that these contacts which have spanned some 69 years, have resulted in his having learned many things and also accumulated the most stunning collection of physical UFO evidence in the form of photographs, films, videos, sound recording and metal samples. All of these samples were presented by him to investigators of the world long before home computers, photo shop and special effects were available.

VM: How did you actually get involved with Billy yourself, Michael?

MH: Well, it all started in 1979 when I walked into a bookstore in the Los Angeles area and saw a kind of coffee table book, you know, the kind of large, square or sometimes rectangular books full of photographs that adorn coffee tables around the world, and this one happened to have, not only on the front of the book but also inside, UFO photos taken by this man Billy Meier, and they were stunningly clear and very compelling. The book contained some photos of him and other people involved in his investigative team, information about the photos, other evidence, etc. So, it totally captured my attention and when I looked at this and when I read it, my first instinct was that this was genuine. This had a ring of authenticity about it, it exceeded in anything I'd seen in movies up until that time, and when I looked in there and saw that this man was a one-armed Swiss man, an often called "simple" Swiss farmer living in a rugged rural area southeast of Zurich in rather serious conditions with nothing luxurious, certainly not the center of any technological development going up, it rang true for me and of course to this day I hold a conviction, but I hold it more firmly based on 31 years of research into every aspect of the case that I could, and that book and experience kind of launched me into this pursuit for the past 31 years.

VM: Terrific. That leads me to my next question. Billy, as you mentioned, is living in this remote area in Switzerland and he seems like a very shy, reserved and unassuming kind of guy. So why do you think he was actually chosen as the key contact?

MH: Well, just a couple of things, a little bit to say about his nature. Let's say that it isn't so much that he's shy; he is reclusive because of his self-imposed demands. With his experiences and with publishing his writing, plus his own family obligations and duties where he lives and works with his group, he does not seek the limelight. He does not do interviews or run around with lectures to try to convince anybody of anything, and he can be quite forceful if he needs to. He's just a very well rounded human being, I'd say. He certainly has chosen a certain degree of reasonableness and modesty, but if he needs to speak up for himself, I've seen him do it. He's just kind of a regular person.

As for why he was chosen for this, and especially at such a young age, in order to explain that, I have to bring into the equation the idea of reincarnation. In our world today, and probably still yet for a long time to come, reincarnation is either something that people believe is true or they don't believe is true. We don't know for sure; and with the rarest exceptions, we don't have really good hard evidence of past lives for anybody. I say "with rare exceptions" because there is information. There are stories and people who have come forward and presented some very compelling information that seems to have been verified that would lead someone to accept the idea that they either lived the lives in the past that they were speaking about, different lifetimes, or that somehow they absorbed that information, and maybe innocently believe that this was their past life, whatever the case may be.

Michael Horn

“The spirit that now is dwelling within the personality of Billy Meier was, in previous incarnations, dwelling within Enoch, Elijah, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Jmmanuel and Mohammed; and that doesn't mean that any of these people were the previous people, because as I said before, it is not a personality.”

In this material we are told that the human being, every human being certainly on this planet and anywhere else they may exist, has within him or her, a human spirit distinct from what's commonly called the soul. The soul, being basically located around the solar plexus, is temporary, and at death, the soul along with the personality dissolves. The spirit, this eternal, immortal part of us, according to the information in this case, is a kind of very minute, virtual hologram of the universe in a sense. It's a hard piece, an energetic simile for the universe, of what they call "the creation," that has the potential and purpose to manifest the potential of re-emerging back as a very powerful, wise force if you will, back into the creation, back into the universal energy, after many billions of years of experience in the human form, from the densest bodies to even lighter bodies. I'm trying not to digress, but giving you a little painting here.

So, the human spirit, this immortal part of us, is not a personality. It is never Robert, Brian, Michael, Jane, Joe or whatever. It is a neutral energetic force that reincarnates countless millions of times in different personalities and bodies sequentially, if you will. Anybody that is alive now more than likely has had quite a number of previous incarnations. That is, the spirit form has incarnated previously and will continue to for a long time, and that means that a man could be a woman in another life, you can conceivably change races, whatever it is. But you won't generally have any recollection or knowledge of it.

Now, in the case of Meier, what we're told here is that the spirit that currently enlivens this man Billy Edward Albert Meier is an enormously ancient spirit form, so ancient in fact that it had already gone through the evolutionary process over billions of years obviously very long ago, and was in the lower levels of the spiritual planes that are not material, where there are no bodies but the spirits themselves. There is not much I can do with this information at this point except lay it out as best I can, and with my own limited understanding.

For reasons that are contained within the information of the case, that spirit, in a very unique occurrence, volunteered to come back into another incarnational cycle for the purpose of doing work on different worlds as different human beings. As prophets, if you will, who would work with an advanced extra-terrestrial race to try to bring back into sanity, reason, logic, knowledge, wisdom, understanding, peace, harmony, love, freedom, justice and joy, as far as we're concerned, the human beings that dwell on planet earth.

THE SPIRIT

MH: There is a long history and story about the spirit, what it had done before in its previous incarnation. So in terms of the more recent and pertinent history, this spirit form has incarnated 6 previous times as special prophets in our past on earth. We know the names Enoch (or in German they call him "Henoah," but I'll just give the English names), Elijah, Jeremiah, Isaiah, Jmmanuel and Mohammed. Now, I said Jmmanuel and most of us are not familiar with there being a Jmmanuel unless we know at Christmas time some songs we sing about Jmmanuel, those people who know the Old Testament, and anyone who knows it knows far better than I, know that in Isaiah 7:14 (I think it is) he foretells the coming of Jmmanuel as the prophet who would come as a significant prophet of the future. And in the New Testament, during the birth of Jesus, at one point there is a slip-up and they say his name will be "Jmmanuel¹." So, what we are told

¹ The name Jmmanuel is mentioned, with different spellings, in the Old Testament, Isaiah 7:14: "Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, a young woman shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immani'u-el." And we find it again in the New Testament, Matthew 1:23: "Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel." Billy Meier's

“The soul, being basically located around the solar plexus, is temporary, and at death, the soul along with the personality is dissolving.”

here is that there have been six prophets, all of whom with personalities and six various names, had the same originating spirit, which of course also evolved in each lifetime. The one after Jmmanuel would be Mohammed, and the one after insists on spelling it with an initial J instead of an I or an E. The stated reason is that he was commanded to do so by the Plejarans.

Mohammed would be Billy Meier. It is not necessary to believe any of this, no one can prove it; it's simply inferred. This is simply what this is about. It doesn't make Meier a celebrity; he doesn't get special perks obviously. A man who has been the target of 21 assassination attempts may feel like his life isn't exactly completely and totally without some significant challenges.

So, the Plejaran people, taking advice from even more highly developed human beings in the Andromeda system, took up contact with young Billy Edward Albert Meier and at the same time, they didn't actually know (the Andromedans) the origin of the spirit forms. They simply knew that it was a very old spirit form that would have the capability in the current personality, being educated, mentored and tutored, to fulfill the role of the prophet for the new time or the new age. That's kind of the elongated version of something I wanted to make sure to say.

VM: That's interesting. So, what we know of the person we know as Jesus was in fact Jmmanuel?

MH: Right. And the many things about the person called Jesus are just outright falsifications, since there was no Jesus according to this information. That's an entire falsification, but they took the information and text as well that was written down by Judas Iscariot, and they falsified the life of this man to make him into a deity, and that he had been resurrected from dying on the cross.

The information contained in this case is that, indeed, there was a crucifixion which Jmmanuel knew was coming and didn't relish, but he knew he had to walk through it and that there were a number of people who were prepared for this, including the Hebrews from India who'd been brought in. And he survived it by having been trained for many years, and we have the lost years of Jesus even in the New Testament. He was trained in very deep states of meditation by meditation masters who were in the Himalayas 2,000 years ago, and that was a lot of what brought him into developing the ability to control himself under extreme duress such as most human beings will never hopefully ever know. And that for three days and nights, he was ministered to, and then he was revived due to his own meditative powers and due to the healing from the Hebrews from India; and that he survived the crucifixion and that he actually ended up living in India. Currently there is some information linked from my site².

Again I should say first, we're not trying to start a new belief system, cult, religion or anything. Quite the contrary, the material is quite dedicated to getting people loosened up and thinking their way out of their beliefs so that they can become rational. If they find something they believe happens to be proven to be true, well great. Now you don't have to believe; you can know it. But it's quite clear that this whole time led to horrendous things that we are still suffering from, and that in fact all of the prophets who have come ended up having their own teaching, corrupted into different religions. Judaism, Christianity, Islam; those three religions, of course, each being the true and pure right religion, are at each others' throats and along with their own adherents and followers, they are hell-bent (if you will) to take the rest of the world down with them. Of course, there are also secular powers that want to do all sorts of nasty stuff, but religions have been enormously culpable for so much damage on this planet for thousands of years. It can also fairly be said that this is an enormous part of the mission to help people break loose, especially from religion, and consequently from politics and stuff.

VM: Michael, I want to keep on this particular area for a little bit, so just to clarify: this spirit form which is Billy Meier was in fact the same spirit form as Jesus, Mohammed, and some of the other prophets that you actually mentioned. Is that correct?

MH: Well, I'll state it this way. The spirit that now is dwelling within the personality of Billy Meier was, in previous incarnations, dwelling within Enoch, Elijah, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Jmmanuel and Mohammed; and that doesn't mean that any of these people were the previous people, because as I said before, it is not a personality. It doesn't take on a personality. It dwells within the human who is and has a personality and consciousness. So, if anyone says, "Well, Billy Meier claims to be Jesus." No, nobody was Jesus. And in terms of Jmmanuel, only Jmmanuel was Jmmanuel, and Billy is a totally different person, as was Mohammed and each of the prophets preceding them.

VM: And apparently a female by the name of Asket took Billy into a spaceship, or beam ship as they call them, and revealed to him the future and the past, and in his travels he actually met Jesus?

“So, what we are told here is that there have been 6 prophets, all of whom with personalities and six various names, had the same origination spirit, which of course also evolved in each lifetime.”

MH: According to Meier, he did indeed meet Jmmanuel and there is a transcript in our film "The Silent Revolution of Truth," where he talks a little about that. But, there is a transcript where there is more information about that; it's on the Internet. It may be linked from my site and if not, at some point I'll be putting it back up or I'll put a link to where it is. It's quite an interesting conversation.

Again, there's obviously no obligation for anybody to believe it. They might find it a little unusual in and of itself. It's just a very interesting thing to read. There are four people who are involved in that episode: there is Asket, and Meier of course, Jmmanuel and there was a Russian guy who ended up coming with them on this time traveling trip, and it really blew the Russian guy's mind. We're talking late 50's I think, and this guy had been a religious Christian and he experienced this. Meier literally has to pop him one on the nose to straighten him out because the guy is freaking out. It's like his reality was altered significantly, so it's quite an interesting story. In a sense it's interesting, but there's only so much we can do with it. We can simply say that it's the same teaching that each of the previous prophets, including Jmmanuel, brought once again through Meier for the people of earth, and this time it won't be corrupted. This time, we have a world full of people who can read and write. In previous times, it was limited to a very few. This time it will be preserved electronically, as it already is, and disseminated in an uncorrupted form that people can always compare any alleged version of the teaching with. So that is pretty much a given. The fact that it will still take a very long time for all of us to fulfill its purpose is another story.

Do you think Nostradamus, the famous 16th century "Prophet of Provence," was some kind of a magician, perhaps a doctor, astrologer, and seer, too? If so, Peter Lemesurier's revelation that he was really just an ordinary man using an equally ordinary technique may come as a shock.

After re-examining the original sources, Lemesurier concludes that Nostradamus was in fact neither a doctor nor an astrologer, nor even (by his own admission) a prophet. He merely believed that history repeats itself, thus and projected known past events onto the future. To do so, he used the process of bibliomancy – randomly selecting extracts of randomly chosen books, then claiming "divine inspiration". Unsurprisingly, he has almost never been proved right.
